

A conversation with renowned architect Bruce Fowle

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 2008 at 11:30am
COLONIAL THEATRE 111 SOUTH ST, PITTSFIELD, MA

Please join The Housatonic River Museum and the Berkshire Branch of the U.S. Green Building Council as we present Bruce Fowle, Senior Partner, FAIA, LEED FXFOWLE ARCHITECTS of New York City and Dubai, to discuss these timely topics:

- The state of the planet
- The role of buildings in climate change
- High-performance/low-energy building design and planning
- Zero-carbon and the proposed Housatonic River Museum

Enjoy this exciting event in downtown Pittsfield's architectural gem, the Colonial Theatre. This event is FREE and open to the public—bring your family & friends. Refreshments will be provided by Brix Restaurant.
